The votive intentions for the week of April 9

St. Joseph's - Aloys Droege

St. Mary's (s)(a) - Jacob Hagen, Clem & Irene Hillen

St. Norbert's - Jason Sagez, Louis & Laura Sagez

"The SANCTUARY CANDLE was offered in loving remembrance of these deceased members of our families. In our lives that God bestows upon us, He assures us of His promise that when our earthly lives are complete, He will gather us to Himself so that He will be able to embrace us in His eternal love. May Jesus, the light of the SANCTUARY CANDLE, lead them to the KINGDOM of heaven and may the eternal light and love shine upon their souls forever. Our sincere prayer is that God has given them a place right beside Him. The contribution for a sanctuary candle intention is $5.00 and should be scheduled through the offices.

This is a time (Lent) to rediscover why we have come to the world, where we come from, where we are going, what route we are following.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord – 09 April 2017

Entering. We hear proclaimed again today the story of Jesus entering Jerusalem, his city and place of destiny. He did this with courage and conviction. He did not let waving branches turn his head, change his mind. We do our entering today – into Holy Week. We face, with Jesus the Christ, our own destiny. How can I let people's praise and adulation not “go to my head”? How can I face what I must face with courage and conviction? How will I be at prayer and reflection these holy days?

Holy Thursday: Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper – 13 April 2017

Washing, Dining, and Remembering. We hear proclaimed again this day the story of washing the feet of others. A task so menial, lords and ladies did not do it. But the Lord Jesus did. No task is beneath his doing – nor ours. We also hear of dining on bread and wine irrevocably changed. This repeatable task is for remembering liturgically Jesus the Christ and his Paschal Mystery in Body and Blood. What must I do? How will I be at the service of others? Today? Next week? How will I “remember” the Christ – and thus remember us all?

Good Friday: The Passion of the Lord – 14 April 2017

Dying. We hear proclaimed today the story of Jesus and his passion and death. It is a partial remembering of his Paschal Mystery. The ending today, with the empty cross, is glimpse of the complete story. Though dying is an end of sorts, it is not the end of this story. Nor is it the end of our stories. We know it. We believe it. Death leads to new life. Empty cross is sign of everlasting life. What is it I still need to let die? What newness of life do I need, do I seek? How does the empty cross lead me in the life I am to

Lenten Regulations

- 2. Fast—Everyone 18 years of age and under 59 is required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is permitted. Two other meatless meals sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to each person's needs, but together these two should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids (including milk and fruit juices) are allowed.
- 3. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful.

Office of the Bishop

April 2017

Dear Friends in Christ,

We look forward to the liturgical celebrations of Holy Week, through which the Lord draws us more fully into the mystery of His death and resurrection.

I am writing to ask your financial support of two collections to be taken in all our parishes during these coming days. I know that I can count on you to be generous.

At the Good Friday Liturgy, a collection will be taken to help the work of the Church in the Holy Land. The daily news reminds us of the violence and instability plaguing the Middle East, but we rarely hear of the shrinking Christian community there, a community that struggles to remain in the land of Christ's birth, death and resurrection. Please help support our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land by giving to today's special Good Friday collection.

At the Easter Vigil Liturgy and the Easter Sunday Masses, the special collection will help our diocese to educate and form future priests. Our diocese has been blessed with an increasing number of young men who have generously said yes to God's call. We now have twenty-three seminarians, four of whom will be ordained priests in May. You can take a personal role in their formation by a generous gift in the special Easter collection.

With best wishes and prayers for a blessed Holy Week and Easter, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Thomas John Paprocki
