ANNOUNCEMENTS

2nd Collection This Weekend--will be for the Retired Diocesan Priests. Please pray for those who serve so generously and give thanks to the retired priests who have served so well.

SFA Finance Council Meeting Changed--We will meet after Pastoral Council at 8pm on June 25; Hardin office.

Joint Picnic Committee Meeting--Because of the current flood situation, Father suggested that the three picnic committees for Blessed Trinity Parish meet to discuss options and alternative dates to host the annual church picnics. This will be held after 6:30 mass next Saturday, June 15th at St. Mary's Hall. At least one from each committee should be in attendance to help make these important arrangements.

St. Mary's Driveway Repair update--$2293 collected toward the goal of $9000. The second collection will continue through the next few weeks. Thanks to those who have already donated.

Phones Disconnected at Church Halls--Phone service at St. Joseph Hall, St. Mary Hall, and St. Barbara Church has been disconnected effective 5/31/19. This was a decision by the Finance Council and approved by Father in order to save approximately $2000 in annual expenses. The usage of cell phones by most parishioners was also a consideration.

St. Barb Picnic Committee--June 22 we will be cooking chickens. We are asking for the usual picnic donations for I Dood It, Bingo, Country Store, etc. Also, please save ice cream buckets, jars, and plastic bags. Lastly, Chicken and Beef collections for St. Barbara's will be prior to 8:00 mass on June 30. Please remember to use your envelope.

Bible Study Cancelled--the June 5, 12, and 19th Bishop Barron Study is cancelled due to flooding.

St. Vincent de Paul--July 25, St. Mary's Hall, 6:30 pm, Quarterly Council meeting of the Societies in the Springfield Diocese--training for home visits will be conducted. We welcome participation! If you are interested in helping or joining the Society, please contact Jim Twichell at 618-334-5193, or Brad Vacca at 314-608-9302.

SFA/BT PSR Program in Need!!

Many of our veteran PSR catechists are retiring--all at once! We are looking for a minimum of four new individuals to step forward and take a class for the upcoming year.

We meet on Wednesday evenings, 6-7:15pm in Hardin, from mid-September to end of April.

Please call Maria Carmody at 576-2628 if you feel called to this wonderful ministry! Give it a try!

SANCTUARY LIGHTS

The votive intentions for the week of June 9
St. Norbert's (s) - Jason Sagez

A Prayer for Our Local Community

Let us pray to God. . . For the community we live and work in, For all who are adversely affected by the flooding, For all our local businesses struggling or closed due to the high water, For all the people who are lonely, For those whose voices are never heard, For those who find no friends, For the people struggling to find shelter or to save their shelter, For those who are disheartened, And for those who feel betrayed.

The Society of ST. Vincent DePaul of Blessed Trinity and St. Francis of Assisi Parishes

A lot of progress has been made the past couple months for our newly formed Society. The National SVDP has approved our name (noted above) and has approved our application as a conference and a full-fledged member of the society. Several donors, within and outside the county, have stepped up and pledged large sums of money so we can start helping the poor in our county.

SVDP needs a small building to house our food pantry. This building does not need to be very large and could be housed in the space as small as a two-car garage. Please notify Jim or Brad if anyone can help us out. We are also working on a phone answering service and business cards to distribute to those in need.

We are currently accepting monetary donations to assist those in need of flood relief. Our next conference meeting will be on 6/20, 6:30 PM at St. Norbert's office.
