2nd Collection Next Weekend—

My dear friends in Christ,

Over the past year, the coronavirus pandemic has magnified the importance of communication. Whether it was announcing the closing and then reopening of the public celebration of Mass, updates on Confirmations, how our schools would reopen safely and responsibly, and how we should respond spiritually to the fear and stress of the pandemic, Catholic Times was consistently in your mailbox conveying these critical messages to you and the faithful of our diocese. In fact, I have heard numerous people say that despite all the uncertainty, Catholic Times was a consistent beacon of normalcy, something people deeply appreciated.

Catholic Times has been putting a greater emphasis on feature reporting, highlighting the people, parishes, and schools that are building up the Kingdom of God in our diocese. The magazine is also focusing on educating people about the faith through the "Hey, Father!" series and showcasing inspiring stories that provide a much-needed spiritual boost, especially during this uncertain time. New series in Catholic Times were also launched this past year including "From the Archives" and the cartoon "One Last Thing."

My column, "Lex Cordis Caritas," is on page 4 of each issue. It is one of the best ways that I can speak to you about the issues that we face as Catholics in Central Illinois and the nation and update you on important decisions I make that impact the faithful. As your bishop, it is important for me to be an active participant in Catholic media.

Catholic Times strives to report on the people and issues in our diocese and the extraordinary work ahead of us. Whether it is your church, your neighbor, or your school, it is important the magazine highlights the incredible life-giving and spiritually giving work our people are doing. The mission of Catholic Times is to educate readers about our faith, inspire readers about our faith, and equip readers with information to defend our faith.

It is all these reasons why I believe that Catholic Times should be available to every household in our diocese, either online (ct.dio.org) or by mail. Your $15 annual subscription will help ensure that it remains an inexpensive source of information on the vital issues I have noted. Please renew your subscription in your Catholic Times parish envelope during the weekend of January 9-10.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
