15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word but then the cares of the world and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit." – Matthew 13:22

Does the lure of riches and material goods choke God out of your life? Are you so caught up in earthly activities that you have no time for God? Gratitude and generosity are virtues that we should strive to do on a daily basis. Every decision we make either takes us one step closer to God or one step further away. What we receive at Mass every Sunday should be shared with others all the other days of the week as well.

St. Vincent de Paul Society of Calhoun County

End Poverty Through Systemic Change

July 1, 2026

St Francis of Assisi

P. O. Box C

Hardin, IL 62047

Dear Parishioners,

We at St Vincent de Paul want to thank you for your donation of $2251.00 in donations. Your support of St Vincent de Paul and all its ministries is a joy for all of us. Thank you for combating hunger, poverty and homelessness right here in Calhoun County. What a wonderful way to celebrate the birth of the Christ child! And as always you are most generous. We are most fortunate to have you as a patron!

2026 has been a continuation of 2025 regarding food inflation. While the inflation rate itself has come down, people are upset because prices have not come down with it. We are all having to adjust to the higher price of food. And if we are honest, they will not go back to those pre-Covid days. But this also occurred at the same time as Covid monies ran out. The additional dollars through the Link card for our low-income families has disappeared. It has been quite an adjustment, as you can imagine. And therefore we are seeing an increase in the number of families accessing our pantries.

We have an awesome group of volunteers! There are about 75-80 men and women who each have found a meaningful way to respond to God's call. Calhoun High School students as well as St Norbert students, (grades 5-8), help when we need them. Our call, to see the face of Christ in every person we serve, and to be the face of Christ to our neighbor. What a wonderful group of human beings! It's a fun group and they work so very hard.

Contributions of food wax and wane, but your dollar contributions allow us to provide a consistent flow of food. We currently spend about $1000.00 a month on food. And we anticipate that will only go up as the number of families increase. For most, the pantry supplements their monthly grocery expenditures, but for those who are living on less than $1000.00 per month, we and their Link card is all that stands between them and real hunger. Please pray for them.

God is good all the time! Yes, we worked hard. But none of this would have been possible without the Holy Spirit! To look back on the year is to be humbled by His greatness. We did not do this by ourselves. And we thank you for responding to the Spirit as well.

Established in 2018, The St Vincent de Paul Society of Calhoun County is a recognized 501c3 non-profit. SVDP runs a state-of-the-art food and clothing pantry where both food and clothing are provided free of charge to our low-income neighbors. In addition, volunteers coordinate the Catholic Charities Mobile Food Pantry which now delivers 50-pound boxes of high-quality food monthly to 46 families who are especially in need or home bound.

We also manage a Help Line where our neighbors needing assistance with rent/mortgage, utilities, home repairs, car repairs, fees for GED classes, medical assistance, etc. can receive help. Often our families have overwhelming problems. We seldom can "fix" everything. We have become used to praying a lot and solutions emerging over time. We are glad if we can walk awhile with our neighbors and find that we gain much more than we give. We work closely with other agencies such as Illinois Valley Economic Development Corporation, Head Start, 0-3 Program, Calhoun County Senior Center, and the Calhoun Public Health Department.

Our funding comes from small grants such as Rice Bowl and the Campaign for Justice and Hope from the Springfield Diocese, Calhoun for Life which keeps us stocked with diapers and wipes, Emergency Food and Shelter dollars from the Calhoun County Clerk's office, a grant from Calhoun Community Foundation, and donations from individuals, small businesses, churches, civic organizations, and corporations.

There are no paid staff at SVDP. All services provided are free of charge by volunteers. And they are a wonderful group of people!

Again, we humbly thank you for your support. We can't do it without you. And as always, please pray for us.

God bless,

Robin Hillen

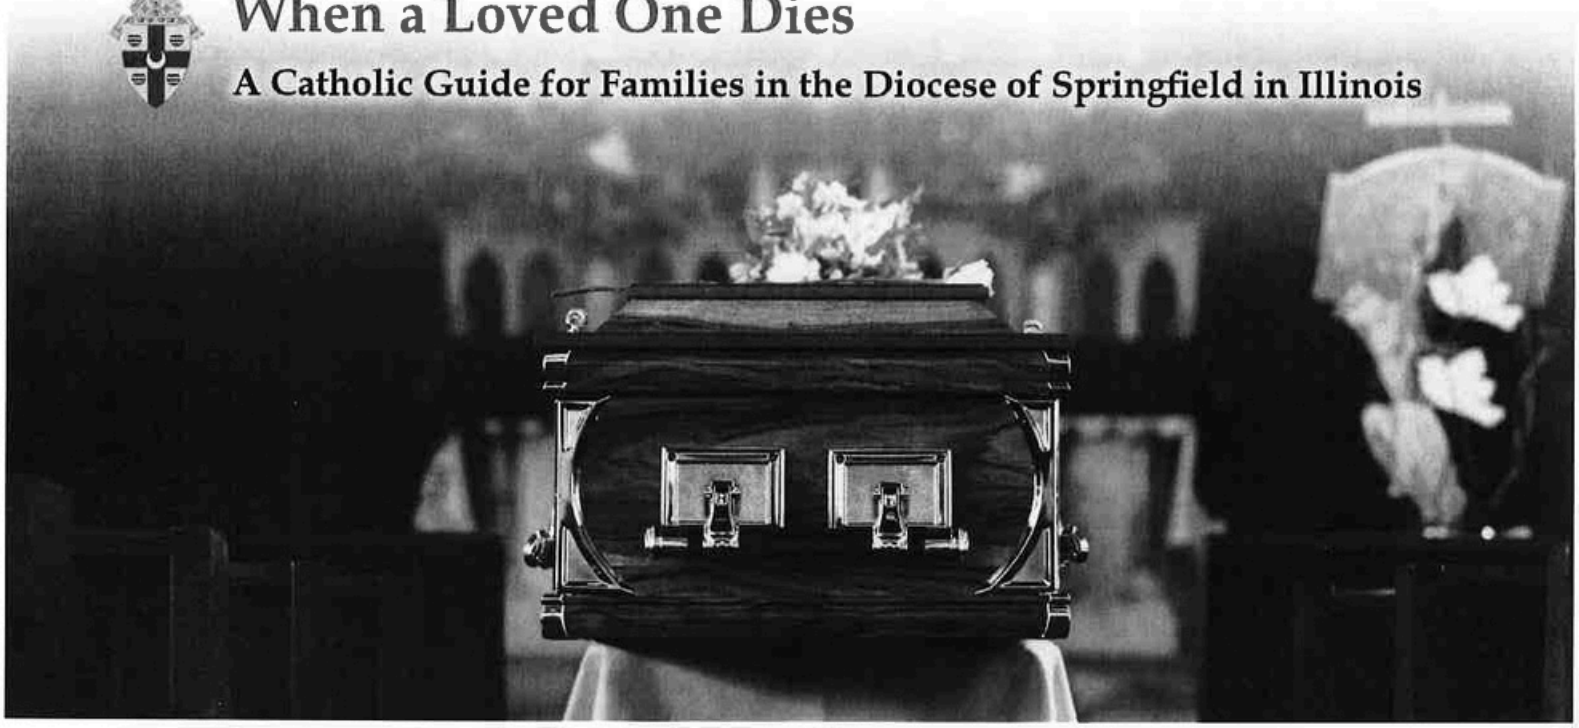
When a Loved One Dies

A Catholic Guide for Families in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois



Finding hope, prayer, and peace through the Church's Funeral Rites

The death of a loved one is a sad and difficult time. We naturally mourn the loss of our loved ones whose presence in our lives we will miss deeply. However, this is also a time of hope and grace. As Catholic Christians we place all of our hope in Our Lord Jesus Christ, who through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection has conquered death and prepared the path to eternal life.

The Purpose of Catholic Funeral Rites

- To worship God in thanksgiving for the gift of the person's life.
- To pray for the soul of the deceased, commending them to God's mercy and asking forgiveness of sins.
- To bring hope and consolation to the living, strengthened by the promise of the Resurrection.

In these rites, the Church proclaims the Gospel of Jesus Christ and reminds us that God's mercy is greater than death.

A Catholic funeral is not a single moment, but a journey of prayer made up of three sacred "stations," often connected by processions:

1. The Vigil: typically held at the funeral home the evening before the funeral Mass. It is the Church's official prayer for the deceased and a time for family, friends, and community to gather.
2. The Funeral Liturgy (typically Mass): celebrated in the parish church, this is the heart of the Catholic funeral rites, where we unite the life of the deceased to Christ's sacrifice in the Eucharist.
3. The Rite of Committal: celebrated at the cemetery, where the body or cremated remains are laid to rest in hope of the Resurrection.

These sacred movements help us accompany our loved one in prayer and gently move through grief within the rhythm of the Church's prayer.

Visitations (or Wakes) and Vigil Prayers

The visitation (or wake) and Vigil are two related but distinct parts of the Catholic funeral rites, each serving an important purpose in accompanying the deceased and comforting the family.

1. The Vigil is the Church's official prayer for the deceased and for those who mourn. It is normally celebrated the evening before the Funeral Mass, often during the visitation period, and is an integral part of the Order of Christian Funerals. While the Rosary or other devotions may be prayed, they do not replace the Vigil, though they can be included alongside it.
2. The Vigil may be celebrated with or without the presence of the family. When possible, it is led by a priest, deacon, or parish representative on behalf of the Church, continuing the Church's prayer for the deceased even if loved ones are unable to attend.
3. The Vigil is not held on the morning of the Funeral Mass. Its purpose reflects the idea of "keeping watch," rooted in the tradition of staying close to the body of the deceased in prayer and remembrance. Holding it the evening before also gives more time for family, friends, and the community to offer their condolences and prayers.

4. The visitation and Vigil are most commonly held at the funeral home, where the setting best accommodates gathering and visiting. In certain circumstances, such as a large number of mourners, they may be held at the church with the pastor's permission, typically in the gathering space or narthex. The body or cremated remains are not left on parish property overnight.

What Music Can Be Played at a Funeral Mass?

Music at a Funeral Mass should come from approved Catholic liturgical hymnals, just as it does at any Mass. This ensures that what is sung reflects our Catholic faith, especially our hope in the Resurrection and God's mercy. While some secular or personal songs may be meaningful, they are not used during the Mass itself, or during the other funeral rituals, since the liturgy is prayer addressed to God. Carefully chosen sacred music helps lift our hearts in prayer and expresses the faith of the Church.

Words of Remembrance (Eulogy)

A eulogy is not part of the Catholic Funeral Liturgy. However, brief words of remembrance may be permitted:

- They should focus on the person's faith and relationship with God.
- They must be written in advance and approved by the pastor.
- They should be brief (approximately 250–350 words).
- They are read by a priest or deacon.

Personal stories and memories are best shared at the visitation, family gatherings, or the luncheon, where there is more freedom and time.

Cremation

The Church permits cremation, though burial of the body is still preferred because it more clearly reflects the Christian belief in the Resurrection of the body.

If cremation is chosen:

- The body is ideally present for the Vigil and Funeral Mass before cremation.
- Cremated remains are to be treated with the same dignity as the body.
- They must be placed in a worthy vessel and buried or entombed in a cemetery. Cremated remains may not be placed in a keepsake or jewelry.
- They may not be scattered, divided, or kept in the home.
- Burial should take place normally within 30 days.

The Church reveres the human body as a temple of the Holy Spirit and destined for resurrection glory in Christ.

Why Be Buried in a Catholic Cemetery?

A Catholic cemetery is a sacred place of hope. It is a "resting place," where the body awaits the Resurrection promised by Christ. Because the human body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, the Church treats burial with great dignity and reverence. A Catholic cemetery also provides a peaceful place for families to visit, pray, and remain connected to their loved one. Most importantly, those buried in Catholic cemeteries are remembered in the prayers of the Church, especially at Masses and through ongoing blessings, offering the assurance that they are continually commended to God's mercy if they are awaiting eternal life in Purgatory.

A Final Word of Hope

In the face of death, the Church proclaims a hope the world cannot give: Jesus Christ is risen, and death does not have the final word. Through the funeral rites of the Church, we commend our loved ones to God, pray for their souls, and entrust ourselves to the promise of the Resurrection. In your time of loss, know that the Church walks with you — praying for your loved one, supporting your family, and always pointing to the hope of eternal life in Christ.
